

Join us on the Village Green in scenic Montrose, PA!

Friday
August 5th
and Saturday
August 6th
9 am to 4 pm

Sponsored by the Library Friends to benefit

Brochure funded in part by the Susquehanna County Room Tax
Fund and the Endless Mountains Visitors Bureau

DIRECTIONS

From Interstate 81 - Get off at Exit 223 (10 miles south of the NY border, 38 miles north of Scranton). Follow signs to Rt. 11. Turn left on 11 and follow signs to Rt. 706 West. Take 706 for 10 miles to Montrose. Turn right at the traffic light. The Green is next to the Courthouse.

From Route 29 - PA Route 29 intersects with Rt. 706 in the center of Montrose at the single traffic light. The Green is one block north of the intersection.

The historic town of Montrose, tucked into the hills of the Endless Mountains, has the immaculate appearance of a New England village, complete with grassy village green, magnificent sugar maples, and an awe-inspiring courthouse overlooking the quaint downtown shopping district.

The Blueberry Festival is held each year on the first Friday and Saturday in August. For more information call 570-278-1881 or visit www.montrosepablueberryfestival.org

32nd Annual Montrose Blueberry Festival

2011 Quilt

Pattern: Blueberry Stars

Handmade by the Magic Needles Quilt Guild

montrosepablueberryfestival.org

The Blueberry Festival began in 1980 as a fundraising event for the Susquehanna County Historical Society and Free Library Association.

Since its beginning, the Festival has been a community celebration, which has grown into an eagerly-awaited event supported by the partnership of hundreds of volunteers and the dedication of local businesses.

The Blueberry Festival represents small town life at its finest. Thousands of people gather each year to enjoy the food, fun, and friendship.

All funds raised at the Festival are used to operate the Susquehanna County Historical Society and Free Library Association, which includes library locations in Forest City, Hallstead-Great Bend, Montrose, and Susquehanna; an Outreach Services department; the county museum; and a genealogy research center.

*Do you love blueberries?
We have blueberry everything!*

Aprons	Pies
Cookbooks	Pottery
Flying Discs	Prints
Fresh Berries	Stationery
Ice Cream	Sweatshirts
Muffins	Totebags
Key Chains	T-shirts

...and our famous pizza with fresh blueberries (yes, really!)

Pancake breakfast: 8am - 10:30am

Lunch: 11am-3pm
both days

All day: Snack on muffins, pie, and other baked goods; cool off with lemonade, soda, and ice cream; enjoy treats like cotton candy!

Activities

- ☞ Lots of children's games
- ☞ Entertainment, including the Massed Band Concert (Sat. 2pm)
- ☞ Silent auction
- ☞ Civil War re-enactor camp
- ☞ Handmade quilt raffle
- ☞ Huge raffle of baskets
- ☞ Visits by Newberry the Blueberry!

Newberry the Blueberry with friends

Sale Items

- ☞ Gigantic selection of used books
- ☞ New books
- ☞ Baked goods
- ☞ Commemorative pottery, t-shirts, & other items
- ☞ Handcrafts
- ☞ Harvest Table
- ☞ White Elephant - jewelry and special items Fri., everything you can imagine Sat.